TUES AY EVENING, AUG 10, 18 1/

A MAN IN HER ROOM .- Annie Byrr e, a domestic in the household of Mi. Samuel Weinberg, of Baltimore, had an experience between Saturday midnight and early Sunday morning that she will not forget for some time. She was asleep in a third-story room and was awakened by hearing a noise in her room. When she opened her eyes she saw a man standing in the middle of the floor with a lighted match in hi-band. The man walked to the gas jet turned it on and lighted the gas. The young woman was so badly frightened that she could not scream, but she n ade a noise, which was evidently heard by the man, who instantly turned out the gas. As he did so the young woman screamed and demanded to know who he was. She saw a form disappear through the window, and that was the last seen of him. When daylight came it was found that a board had been placed on the roof, which formed a span to the adjoining roof, and it was by that means the man made his escape. The young woman could give no description of the intruder.

Entwiste, Norton In 1862, when I served my country asa private in Company A, 167th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 50 cent bottle; and now 1 can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great Remedy, and recommend it to all suf Yours gratefully, Henry Steinberger, Allentown, Pa. For sale by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King street.
